TEACHER SUBJECT SPECIALIST TRAINING MATHS

Would you like to train to teach secondary mathematics?

The Salop Teaching School Alliance have been successful in securing funding in order to develop the mathematical skills of teachers in the area. The aims of the course are to:

- Enhance mathematical knowledge to give confidence to teach mathematics Inspire enthusiasm for mathematics
- Provide teachers with motivating activities and tasks for teaching mathematics
- Train staff to be able to deliver mathematics content for Key Stages 3 and 4

Provide mentoring and support throughout the course including observations of teaching in the classroom •

For teachers meeting the criteria, this course is FREE through funding provided by the National College for Teaching and Leadership (NCTL).

The Teacher Subject Specialist Training (TSST) course is aimed at teachers with in any of the following categories: •

Teachers whose initial training was not in secondary mathematics, •

Teachers who are returning to teaching after a career break •

Teachers from a different phase of education who are already teaching or would like to be able to teach mathematics at secondary level. •

The course will be a blended approach with face to face training meetings in Shrewsbury or Telford, online training and online resources and assessments in partnership with The Centre for Innovation in Mathematics Teaching (CIMT), Plymouth University, to provide flexibility for delegates.

WOMEN LEADING IN EDUCATION

(WLiE)

Our first network meeting was held on the 27th June. Three Headteachers were invited to speak at the event from primary and secondary phases. The meeting was a great success with 14 attending. We will be holding more meetings and organising middle and senior leader exchanges and shadowing opportunities in the future.

If you would be kept informed of network meetings or become more involved please email: sc@tpstrust.co.uk

If your school would like to discuss our flexible bespoke service please complete the form by clicking here.

Integral to the concept of Teaching Schools is the belief in system reform and improvement through mutual support and collaboration between practitioners. Teaching Schools are a central point of contact for the support schools need to ensure that the overall effectiveness of their organisation is good or better.

Examples of previous bespoke sessions:

- Whole school CPD incorporating elements of our Teacher Enrichment Programme - 2 hour twilight
- Whole school CPD half a day – “Effective use of the success criteria/AFL”
- Whole School CPD 2 hour session on "How to stretch and challenge the more able students"

School to School Support feedback:

“Just a quick note to say thank you so much for making us feel so welcome during our visit last week. It was really interesting to come and see how English works and we both came back to school brimming with ideas that I am sure our students will enjoy. It was a really valuable two days and hopefully the start of a productive partnership between our departments.”
