

Challenges Faced

3 questions to consider:

- Why do you want to become a Subject Leader?
- What do you understand of the role?
- What will you bring to the role?

Challenges Faced

What are the challenges you face to becoming a Subject Leader – personal and professional?

What can you do to overcome the challenges?

Challenges Faced

Do whatever you can!

In order to secure a position as a Subject Leader, you need to know what the job entails.

Work with your current Subject Leader, offering to do tasks so that you build experience.

Discuss the possibility of leading on whole school initiatives.

Leading Learning

Department Meetings

Leading learning both in the classroom and for your staff is crucial.

How can department meetings be used to achieve this?

Leading Learning

Creating Agendas

Ensure a balance between information and developmental discussion

Leading Meetings

Keep momentum and everyone on track.

Delivering CPD

Identify key areas of need within your department and prepare thoroughly.